GUIDELINES

- To qualify for a participation certificate, delegates must attend a minimum of 6 out of 8 committee sessions. To be eligible for awards, delegates are required to attend all committee sessions.
- English is the official language of communication within the committee, unless otherwise directed by the Executive Board.
- All delegates are expected to maintain proper decorum within the college campus. Any breach of this decorum will result in committee expulsion.
- Delegates are required to wear attire that is respectable and presentable to all participants.
- Water bottles will not be provided during the conference as part of our Bring Your Own Bottle (BYOB) policy. The Organizing Committee (OC) members in each committee will assist in refilling water bottles as needed.
- Lunch will be provided on all three days, along with snacks during breaks.
- The Secretariat, Organizing Committee, and conference members will not be held responsible for any instances of theft or loss of personal belongings.

GUIDELINES

- Any form of harassment or misbehaviour towards fellow delegates, OC members, faculty, management, or the Secretariat will result in disciplinary action.
- Executive Board decisions regarding awards are final. Any concerns about awards can be brought to the attention of the Secretariat and will be addressed in an organised manner.
- Participants must carry a valid proof of identity (college ID cards, Aadhaar card, etc.).
- Possession and consumption of prohibited items, including but not limited to cigarettes, alcohol, and narcotics, are strictly forbidden on the university campus during the conference.
- SSNCE and SNUC enforces a strict professional code of conduct within its premises. We trust that all participants will uphold these standards.
- These guidelines are set to ensure a productive and respectful conference environment. Your adherence to these policies is greatly appreciated.
